Faculty of Humanities and Education Post Graduate Students

---

Transitioning to MLA 7th ed. and APA 6th ed.
Academic Year 2010-2011

New editions of the Modern Language Association's MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers and the American Psychological Association's Publication Manual used for documenting sources in the Humanities and Education respectively have been released. These manuals contain considerable changes. With effect from Academic Year 2010-2011 all new theses must be submitted in accordance with the requirements of the new editions for these manuals. Therefore from next academic year, all FHE PG students must become fully conversant the new editions of these citation manuals.

Copies of the new editions for both citation styles should soon be available in the Bookshop and the Main Library.

For more information on these new editions, you may visit <http://www.mla.org/style> and <http://www.apastyle.org/> or consult you Liaison Librarian for assistance.
