UWI Cave Hill Law Society Mural and Mosaic Design Competition

Deadline: April 17, 2019

Send entries to: beautification.lawfaculty@gmail.com

Overview

The Law Society is seeking to beautify the Faculty of Law, University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus, by creating and installing two artistic pieces. The first will be a mosaic, made from coloured pottery shards, for the walls of the inner courtyard in the Faculty building (affectionately called The Pit). The second will be a painting (mural) on the western facing wall at the back entrance to the Faculty of Law. Original designs for both are sought through this competition.

Eligibility

Opened to students, staff, faculty members, and alumni of the University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus

Group submissions allowed for up to 3 persons, with at least 1 member of the group being a student, staff, faculty member or alumni of the University of the West Indies, Cave Hill

Guidelines for Mosaic

- All submissions are to be original designs
- Participants can make multiple submissions
- The winning design will be recreated in the Law Pit by artists from Earthworks Pottery
- Dimensions: The designated area features an upper and lower wall. Upper wall: 2" x 11", Lower wall: 6" x 11" (both landscape)
