

INTRODUCTION

The University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus will offer a select number of undergraduate courses during Summer School and we extend our warmest welcome to all interested persons.

Summer School offers students an opportunity to:

- 1) accelerate their studies
- 2) register for remedial classes
- 3) further personal enrichment

The duration of teaching is six weeks, followed by a one-week break before examinations begin. It is anticipated that students will be offered thirty-six hours of instruction, divided into two-hour segments in the timetable (6 hours per week).

Please note that specific teaching arrangements in a given course may vary.

ELIGIBILITY FOR ADMISSION

The following persons are eligible for admission to Summer School:

- (i) Registered students of the University who have not completed the requirements of the degree, diploma or certificate programme for which they are registered.
- (ii) Students of the University who have been granted leave of absence for Semester I and/or Semester II or part thereof preceding the Summer School.
- (iii) Persons not students of the University who are eligible to matriculate at:
 - (a) Normal level
 - (b) Lower level

(c) As a mature student
